FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WFHS Students Attend Future Business Leaders of America State Leadership Conference

West Fargo, ND – (April 6, 2017) – Members of the West Fargo High School Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) chapter attended the 50th annual North Dakota FBLA State Leadership Conference in Bismarck, April 2-4, 2017. The culmination of the conference is the awards ceremony where members are acknowledged for their accomplishments and success in the conference's competitive events. While many of the West Fargo High School members received awards and recognition, the following are of particular note:

- Chapter President – Taylor Morris
- Local Chapter Who's Who Award of Outstanding Leadership – Tianna Pfaff
- First Place in Insurance & Risk Management – Erika Dobler

Members Eric Brown, Taylor Morris, and Erika Dobler have qualified for the FBLA National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, California on June 27 – July 3.

Over 60 FBLA chapters from across the state participated in this conference, where approximately 1,300 students had the opportunity to test their business skills against other students from around the state. Students work individually, in teams, and in chapters to compete in such events as accounting, computer applications, public speaking, job interview, website development, and business ethics. In addition to the competitive events program, students had the opportunity to attend workshops, vote for the 2017-2018 state officer team, and network with members from around the state. FBLA is a professional organization for students interested in pursuing business careers.
