West Fargo Public Schools Names Assistant Principal for Sheyenne High

WEST FARGO, ND – (May 5, 2017) – It is with great pleasure that Assistant Superintendent of Secondary Education Dr. Allen Burgad and Sheyenne High School Principal Dr. Pam Cronin announce Mr. Ryan Salisbury has accepted an assistant principal position at Sheyenne High School.

Mr. Salisbury has a Bachelor's degree in biology and chemistry from Jamestown College, and a Master's degree in special education from UND. He also holds an Educational Specialist degree in educational leadership from Minnesota State University-Moorhead.

Prior to coming to West Fargo Public Schools in 2003, Mr. Salisbury worked at the Anne Carlsen Center. During his time with West Fargo, he has been a special education strategist and an MTSS coach for the district. He has most recently been serving in an interim capacity as assistant principal at Sheyenne High.

After interviewing and subsequently selecting Mr. Salisbury from a pool of highly qualified candidates, Dr. Cronin said, "It is a strong benefit to Sheyenne to officially bring Mr. Salisbury into our administrative team. The relationships he has been able to foster with both students and staff over the years will allow him to hit the ground running and do great things for Sheyenne High!”

Mr. Salisbury will officially move into the role of assistant principal on July 1, 2017.
